

2010 rules, student fee form & entry/fee form

INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

Students currently enrolled in public, home school or private school grades 9-12 are invited to submit published or unpublished work in any category.

Students must complete a Student Fee Form listing all entries. Each entry must have a Entry Form.

Choose "School Submission" for entries with a school.

Choose "Student Submission" to submit individually.

See the next page for forms, make copies as needed

Illustration, Photography, and Graphic Design Entries

Entries for Illustration, Photography and Graphic Design Categories 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 13, 14, 15, and 16 will be submitted and judged in JPEG format. No slides or prints will be accepted for the competition.

Each entry must have its own Entry Form.

JPEG entries must be submitted with resolution suitable for on-screen presenting and judging. Acceptable files range from around 700 x 900 pixels to 1400 x 1800 pixels. There is no exact size required, but our judges should be able to see your illustration, photography, and/or graphic design clearly.

Important: File should be under 5 MB.

Judges must be able to read any important text when viewing the file at 100% on screen.

Submit each JPEG entry with a file name consisting of; category #, entry # (1 for 1st, 2 for 2nd, etc.), first three letters of last name and 1st initial of first name, school initials (example: ttc-lc for Tulsa Technology Center, Lemley Campus). If you are entering as an individual student, use your school initials or for Home School use "hs" and your initials (example: hs-rs for Home School, Robert Smith).

Example:

Entry 3_2_smij_ttc-lc.jpg - 2nd entry Category 3 for Illustration-Black & White-Digital Media from John Smith of Tulsa Technology Center, Lemley Campus.
